The second of the series of musicals, which was held at Mr. and Mrs. John which was held at Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll's on last Friday evening for the Episcopal Church, was a success in every sense of the word. The programme was artistic in its arrangement.

Washington's birthday was most attractively celebrated by a "bal-poutre," given by the ladies of Cape Charles at the Arlington Hotel Monday night. As was agreed upon beforehand, the young ladies made engagements for certain dances and went off purposely and forgot all about them when the appointed time rolled around. These asperides furnished much amusement for the occasion. The souvenirs for the dance were little hatchets, tied with red, white and blue ribbon. Mrs. Bruce Leo Jones, Mrx. George Jarvis Spady and Mrs. James Wilson were the hostesses of the evening. Among the dancers were Mr, and Mrs. Joc King, Mr, and Mrs. Tucker Wilkins, Mrs. J. F. Bussies, Misses Mary Taylor, Joeste Savage, Edithe Savage, Evelyn Nottingham, Etta Ballard, Vandergrift, Brister, Wilson, Messrs, W. Tylor, Byrd, Goffigan, Wescott, John T. Wilkins, Sterling Nottingham, Keljam, Tom Jones, Travis, Travers, of New York; Sharpley, Waddell, Carroll, Sturgis, Richardson and Will Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goffigan announced the engagement of their daughter Addie to Mr. George Morrisson, of Philadelphia. The weddling will take place the latter part of April and will be a social event of much interest. Carroll's on last Friday evening for the timore, Mr. Communications of the Mrs. Mr. Arrange Messers. ## IN LYNCHBURG

For Weeks Past Society Thereabouts Has Been on Vacation.

Has Been on Vacation.

(Special to The Tipics-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., February 27.—For several weeks past society in Lynchburg has been taking a vacation, and in the few days just preceding bent there was not, with the exception of one or two small dances, a single notable event. From all accounts, however, Lynchburg will be very gay after Lent; for several entertainments will be given by the auraday Club and the Spielers, two well known social organizations. The last regental merceling occasion.) Several marriages of young people prominent in Lynchburg society will take lace in the month of April, and, if indiviations are to be obligational elaborate.
